

This meeting mainly focused on academic quality assurance, governance, and student achievement.

- Confirmation of satisfactory academic performance and examination oversight, showing attention to teaching quality and assessment standards.
- Approval of staff promotion procedures, supporting institutional governance and academic development.
- Recognition of student international participation (including support for attendance at a global congress), which strengthens global engagement and student opportunity.
- Continued support for research and academic publishing, including dissertation approval and new teaching materials.