

This meeting focused on academic quality, staff development, international readiness, and skills-based expansion.

- Strong attention to exam quality assurance, student feedback, and fair academic processes.
- Continued support for postgraduate research progression and closer supervision of master's and doctoral students.
- Approval of a Professional Development Policy and stronger promotion criteria, reinforcing academic staff quality.
- Expansion of international readiness through preparatory courses for foreign students and new industry-relevant short courses in technical fields.